

Telemarketing Fraud Alert

Consumer Alert: Have you received aggressive telemarketing calls claiming to be from Philips Lifeline? Please read.

Philips Lifeline has learned of widespread fraudulent telemarketing calls targeting senior citizens in the U.S. and Canada that falsely claim to be offering Philips Lifeline products and services.

Philips Lifeline does not engage in telemarketing of this kind, nor do its partners or distributors. The unauthorized telemarketers making these claims do not represent Philips Lifeline.

We are currently investigating this issue, and contacting consumer protection organizations to report this deceptive activity.

If you or a loved one are contacted by telemarketers claiming to represent Philips Lifeline, do not provide credit card or bank information, and request contact information from the calling party.

Consumers or Philips Lifeline subscribers who have received these calls may contact Philips Lifeline with any questions, at 1-800-635-6156.
